Marillion go to Pontins

21 February 2002 12.00am

Marillion, the veteran prog rockers, will host a convention at Pontins in Brean Sands, Somerset on April 6/7/8. It will include highlights such as a live performance of the 'Brave' album, a chance to play with the band and the 'Marillion Lottery', where the band will perform whatever song is chosen at random by the fans. The convention also boasts a Marillion museum which will feature rare memorabilia, instruments, lyric sheets, posters, vintage tour shirts and the 'Strange Engine'. The event has sold out and 1800 fans are due to attend. For more information visit:
